

So, what will we be doing?

The question is better asked,
“What WON’T we be doing?”

The weekend will have over ten separate program and information areas for the whole family to enjoy. There are Scout areas, adult information areas and a sibling program. There is something for everyone.

A few of the programs areas include:

- BB Shooting
- Archery
- Fire Building
- Cooking
- First Aid
- Cub Scout Olympics
- A “Scout” craft project
- Map & Compass
- Scavenger Hunt
- Nature hike
- MORE!

There also will be informational centers for parents and leaders scattered through the camp.

The sibling program will mirror the Scout program with an eye on age appropriate activities. (Kindergarten age and below must have the parent with them at all times!)

FAQs

Q: What do I need to bring?
A: Tent, sleeping bags, whatever else you bring with you to go camping.

Q: What about food?
A: We have that covered. Meals are provided.

Q: What if I don't have a tent?
A: No problem, there are lean to shelters available.

Q: What if I don't have a sleeping bag?
A: Ask a knowledgeable camper for a recommendation. We cannot provide these.

Q: Will the waterfront be open?
A: Sorry, no.

Q: Will the Trading Post be open?
A: No. However, there will be special traders traveling throughout the camp with items of interest.

Q: What if we come as a Pack and want to do our own cooking?
A: Sure. Let us know ahead of time so we can plan meals around that.

Special Events

“Iron Chef”

The Iron Chef contest will be held on Saturday. If you want to compete, enter your name at registration. Three teams of Scout/Adult will be picked at lunch time. These teams will compete for fabulous prizes (OK, maybe not fabulous) and the honor of being the true “Iron Chef”

Registration & Fees

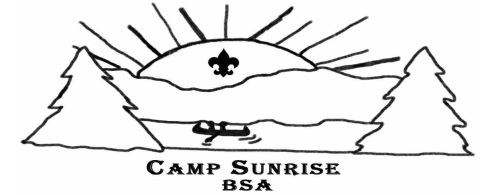

Reservation can be made on-line through the Cub Scout Family Camping website.

What Is Cub Family Camping?

Green Mountain Council invites Cubs, Webelos and their families to an organized, theme-oriented overnight camping program. Council approved leadership will guide this weekend for both families new to scouting and camping; and families with experience who wish to involve all family members, except Fido. Cubs cannot attend this event without a parent.

Who Can Attend?

Cub Scout Family Camping is a Scouting event where the whole family can participate. Anyone in the family may attend any of the Cub Scout Family Camp programs we offer as long as there is one registered Cub Scout in the family.

It's a great time to see old friends and meet new ones!
