
2019 Council Recognition Dinner
to be held
Sunday, April 28th
You are cordially invited to attend

The Green Mountain Council Annual Awards and Recognition Dinner is set for Sunday, April 28 at the Barre Elks Lodge, located at 10 Jefferson Street, Barre, VT 05641. The staff of the Lodge is excited and pleased the Boy Scouts have chosen the Lodge for its recognition dinner and are looking forward to providing a great meal at a very reasonable price.

Cost is $33 per person or $53 per couple. Registration begins at 1:00 PM with the meal at 2:00 PM followed by the awards and recognition ceremony. Deadline to register is Monday, April 22nd.

The highlight of the event is the presentation of the Silver Beaver Award, the highest award that can be earned and presented by the local Council and as always there were some great nominations in the hands of the selection committee. This year's recipients are Norm Hebard, Scoutmaster of Troop 205 in Sharon, Bernie Isabelle, Board member and past Council President and Judy McCullen, Council level trainer, Commissioner and Event Chair. All have been instrumental in contributing to the betterment of their respective communities and the Scouting program! Come celebrate their well-deserved recognition!

In addition, recognition will be given to the top leaders of all units that earned Gold Star status for achieving the Family Friends of Scouting goal, units that achieved Gold status on the JTE scorecard, top selling Scouts & units for the Trail's End popcorn campaigns, and special veteran recognition to our long-standing members. Help us celebrate their achievement and success.

Come and join in the fun and fellowship of this event. It is a great time to reconnect with friends and to learn more about the Scouting program and the direction it is going in the coming years.
