

2019 POWWOW CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

(Circumstances may require last-minute changes)

POSITION TRAINING

Cub Scout Position-Specific Training

A new syllabus this year combines all Cub leaders into one class, with a breakout session in the middle for specific positions.

- Lion, Tiger, Wolf, Bear, Webelos Den Leaders
- Cubmasters and Assistant Cubmasters
- Pack Committee and Committee Chair

Leaders who complete the training are considered trained for their position.

Scoutmaster Position-Specific Training

This morning course will provide Scoutmasters with the basic information and tools they need to lead successful Scouts BSA troops. Scoutmasters and assistant Scoutmasters who complete this course and Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills are considered “trained” for those positions.

Den Chief Training for Scouts BSA (and Leaders They Assist)

This training for youth will allow the new Den Chief, or perhaps the experienced Den Chief looking for new ideas, to have fun and learn the role of Den Chief in a Cub Scout Pack.

New this year!

MORE CLASSES FOR TROOP LEADERS

Stay for lunch, and in the afternoon learn more about Annual Program Planning for Troops, The Scoutmaster Conference, and The Eagle Advisor Position.

PACK MANAGEMENT

Fundraising Do's and Don'ts – Learn how to pay for a great program with safe and successful fundraising practices.

Introduction to Scoutbook – Scoutbook is a valuable tool and resource that will help you with the day-to-day management of your unit and give you more of what you need most. Time! Join us for this introductory overview that will help you master Advancement and activity reporting, event calendars, and unit correspondence in no time.

Scoutbook II, the Sequel – Stay for Part II of this valuable training and take a deeper dive into all that Scoutbook can do for you.

Understanding Online Registration ó Online registration offers an opportunity for youth and adult application processing from start to finish without requiring a single piece of paper to change hands. We'll show you how to navigate this convenient, efficient, and user friendly tool to process your unit's next registrations.

Recruiting Scouts – Recruitment doesn't have to be hard or elaborate. Join us to learn best practices for recruitment and how to turn regular activities into successful recruitment opportunities.

Recruiting Scout Leaders – Learn the basic methods of getting others to volunteer.

Annual Program Planning – Scouting starts with a good plan. Learn how to plan out your unit's upcoming year while creating FUN and exciting experiences for your Cubs.

Marketing with Websites and Facebook – Electronic media are essential tools for Pack/Troop recruiting and communication. We'll take the mystery out of online marketing using Websites and Facebook.

PACK PROGRAM

Teaching Whittling Chip – Learn the basic techniques of knife handling and safety you'll need to know to train.

Beyond the Badges – There are many recognition awards for Cub Scouts beyond the traditional rank advancements. Explore the other awards (and cool patches) Cubs can earn.

Transitioning from Cub Scouts to Scouts BSA – The transition from Pack to Troop is an important step in a Scout's journey. It is crucial that leaders in Scouting do everything they can to make the process as seamless and inviting as possible for Webelos and their parents.

Storytelling – Want to know how to spin a great yarn that will keep your Scouts captivated at your unit's next campfire? Have we got a story for you!

Campfire Programs – Who says you need a campfire to have a great campfire program? Learn the steps for a successful campfire program using skits, songs, stories and run-ons that will keep audiences wanting more!

Pack Meeting Pizzazz – Songs and Skits—Put some excitement in your meetings! We'll show you how!

Blue & Gold Planning – Overwhelmed at the thought of planning for your next Blue & Gold banquet? We'll review step-by-step how easy it can be to plan your Pack's annual Blue & Gold celebration.

Journey to Excellence: What, Why, and How – Understand how JTE can help your unit plan a successful year, provide a method for evaluating your unit in tangible ways, and offer recognition for good Scouting.

First Aid for Cub Leaders – You don't have to look far to find a first aid component in any rank requirement. During this session, we'll talk about what Cub Scouts and Scouters should know about First Aid in Scouting.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Knot Tying – Does teaching knot tying have you in a tangle? Don't come unraveled! join us for this hands-on class and we'll have you turning ties in no time!

Easy Outdoor Meals for Cub Campouts – Discover some delicious meals for your Pack or Den campouts that Scouts will love and won't break your budget!

How Do I Get Those Knots? – Join us and we'll explain all those knots you see on veteran leader uniforms and how you can get them, too.

Suicide Prevention – Youth suicidal behavior is a problem that you may encounter in Scouting or with friends of Scouting youth—even at Cub Scout age. To save the life of a youth at risk, it is important to have a plan in place beforehand, know local professional resources, understand the severity of the problem, look for the signs in the youth you lead, understand major risk factors, and know how you can help.

Diversity and Inclusion – The BSA vision is to extend our mission to all families and communities so that young people may thrive in a world of increasing complexity and challenge. Leveraging diversity makes units stronger. Come learn how to increase diversity within your unit and ways to include everyone.

Trauma-Informed Scouting

Learn to recognize and understand the impacts of trauma on youth and why Scouting is a great opportunity to meet the needs of youth who have experienced trauma such as poverty, domestic violence, deployed parents, and exposure to substance-using caretakers.

Active Shooter! – How does a Scout leader prepare for this? A law enforcement officer gives us some answers.

Fireside Chat with our Scout Executive – Want to learn more about what's next for Green Mountain Council? Or something else? Here's your chance to ask questions of Scout Executive Ed McCollin.

